Important information for the transport of unaccompanied children

A child may only be transported if:

- the parent or legal guardian / authorized person has a booking confirmation for the driver
- the parent or legal guardian / authorized person completes the registration form and brings a form of identification

The parents or legal guardians should ensure that the person picking up the child arrives at the bus stop 15 minutes before the scheduled arrival of the bus. The person picking up the child must show the bus driver photo identification. In addition, the person picking up the child must confirm receipt of the child by signing the form. If there is a delay, we will try to inform the person picking up the child by telephone. If the person picking up the child does not arrive within 5 minutes of the scheduled arrival time or the expected arrival time communicated to the person, the child will be released into the care of the local police.

Liability

Pinkbus GmbH is not liable for the loss of personal items or other possessions of the child. The same applies to the damage of personal items or other possessions of the child, also by third parties.
